

Description: Drip-Trays / Set of Two (Revised)
SKU No: 5700301

Sold in pairs, these polypropylene drip trays from BendPak are a perfect, cost-effective solution to a messy problem. Drip trays are an essential four-post lift accessory, especially if you have a vehicle that leaks. These affordable, impact-resistant polypropylene drip trays are rugged and light, and help solve the common problem of potentially harmful drips. To make sure all the messy oil, coolant and other muck stays neatly contained, each tray comes with 56 articulated catches and gutters to restrain fluids even when carried or bumped. A smart, black color hides the appearance of stains and blemishes.
